

A Twenty Dollar Bill! And Why?

Mr. Stopnick  Channukah Gelt, for real, not candy! on cue A twenty dollar bill!

Piano

G-MA & G-PA GELLMAN: Oh my!

Mr. Stopnick  rubato e parlando
A twenty dollar bill! And why? Upon what should we contemplate? Al-

Piano

Mr. Stopnick  low me please to rit. ex-plicate: What's the meaning of this Gelt? For peace sometimes blood

Piano

Mr. Stopnick  must be pilt. For life, sometimes a good hardies What means this money, No ah boy chick?

Piano

Mr. Stopnick

57 58 59 mp Fm 60 Bbm Fm 61

You won't learn this in Arithmetic! Money follows certain laws, it's worth how much it's Pno.

Mr. Stopnick

62 63 64 65 66

worth because somewhere, something's valueless; it's how our blessings come, I guess.-

Pno.

mf cresc.

Mr. Stopnick

67 f 68 69 70

Golden, shiny, but never pure. Think from whence your riches stem.

Pno.

f dramatic mf

Mr. Stopnick

71 colla voce 72 73 74 Rit. 75 freely, over the top

Think of someone who is poor: And know you stole this gold from them. Es - pecially here in the Pno.

Mr. Stopnick

76 De-vil's South! 77 > You rip your gold from a 78 starvingman's mouth!

Pno.

Fm

Mr. Stopnick

79 ROSE: Oh for Pete's sake Dad!
Give him the money!

(Mr. Stopnick hands the bill to Noah)

ROSE: Good! Say thank you, honey.

NOAH: Thank you.

Pno.

Mr. Stopnick

80 ff No - ah! 81 Ne - ver for - get!

Pno.